

Do NOT stop regulating broadband service. I think the FCC has wasted enough of my tax money assisting big business already. deregulating broadband will only go to harm the fair competition for customers in this market. It will allow Bell South and other firms to squash great ISP's by withholding DSL connections from them and requiring independent negotiations for each line.

Powell is gone, do not continue his reign of terror on the small business.